A note from our Executive Director

Hi there,

We are so happy to welcome you to the historic Apollo Civic Theatre!

Over the past two years as the Executive Director, I have had the incredible privilege of watching our theatre grow in ways both large and small. Our stage has welcomed new performers, our youth programs have expanded, community partnerships have strengthened, and more people than ever have discovered that there is a place for them at the Apollo.

As we begin our exciting 2026-2027 season, we are looking toward the future with tremendous energy and optimism. This season will bring bold productions, beloved stories, new opportunities for performers, and countless moments of creativity, laughter, connection, and joy.

At the Apollo, we believe the arts should be accessible to everyone. We remain committed to creating a safe, welcoming, and inclusive environment where people of all ages and backgrounds can express themselves, work together, and experience the transformative power of live theatre.

Our young people continue to be at the heart of our vision. Through workshops, mentorships, technical training, and full-scale productions, we are helping the next generation build confidence, discover their voices, develop lifelong skills, and experience the magic of bringing a story to life.

We are also continuing the important work of preserving and improving our beautiful 1913 theatre. As we honor the Apollo's remarkable history, we are building a stronger, more accessible, and more sustainable home for the arts. One that will continue serving our community for generations to come.

None of this happens alone. Every audience member, performer, volunteer, educator, donor, sponsor, and community partner plays a role in the Apollo's story. Your presence, encouragement, and support help keep our stage alive and our future bright.

We invite you to experience everything our 2026-2027 season has to offer. Attend a performance, audition for a show, volunteer behind the scenes, enroll a young artist in one of our programs, or simply share the Apollo with someone who has not yet discovered us.

I would love to hear your thoughts and explore new ways we can work together. Please feel free to contact me directly at aubrey@apollocivictheatre.org.

Thank you for being here and for believing in the future of the Apollo Civic Theatre. Together, we are ensuring that this beautiful theatre remains a beacon of creativity, inspiration, inclusivity, and joy for all.

I hope our paths cross again soon,

Aubrey M. Ervin

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Apollo Civic Theatre, and thank you for joining us for today's performance. Whether you're a longtime patron or visiting us for the first time, we are grateful that you've chosen to spend your time with us in our historic theatre.

Your support means so much to everyone who makes the Apollo possible. By attending our productions, you help preserve this beautiful building, support our mission of bringing quality performing arts to our community, and encourage the continued growth of community theatre for generations to come.

If you would like to further support the Apollo, we welcome donations of any size through our website. Every contribution helps provide for building improvements, staffing, costumes, sets, educational programs, and countless behind-the-scenes needs that bring each production to life. It is truly an honor to serve as President of the Apollo Civic Theatre. I am humbled to follow the remarkable legacy that Michael Noll has built through his years of dedication to this amazing building and the programs within it. As we look toward the future, I am excited to continue building on that foundation and to see our little community theatre grow, thrive, and inspire even more people through the performing arts.

Thank you for being part of the Apollo family. Enjoy the show!

Director's Note

Hello everyone! Putting together Madagascar KIDS has been such an amazing experience. Watching each individual child grow into their roles, and take their spotlight has been such an honor, and I am so lucky to have gotten the opportunity to witness it. Being able to create a show like this has given me an appreciation for theatre that years of acting and doing different tech positions has not been able to.

This show would not be at all possible without all of the support. I would love to thank Paige, Megan, Adriana, and all of the parents. Without all of your work behind the scenes, the stage would not shine nearly as bright. Thank you Tyler, without your insight and talent, this show would not be where it is today. I would also love to give the biggest thanks to Tiffany, Cooper, and Lily for being the best mentors I could ask for, and being there for me every step of the way.

I hope you all enjoy the show as we explore what it means to do what you love, and the strength of friendship through it all.
