A note from our Executive Director

Hi there,

We are so happy to see you here at The Apollo!

As the new Executive Director, I am excited to share my vision for our theatre as we embark on a journey of growth and transformation. Our community deserves a vibrant cultural hub that not only showcases talent but also fosters creativity, inclusivity, and connection.

At the Apollo Civic Theatre, we believe that the arts should be accessible to everyone. We are committed to creating a safe and welcoming space where individuals of all backgrounds can express themselves, collaborate, and find joy in the performing arts. This vision includes expanding our programming to ensure that every member of our community feels represented and valued.

One of our primary goals is to enhance our offerings for youth. We understand that engaging young people in the arts can inspire creativity and confidence, and we are eager to develop new programs tailored to their interests and needs. From workshops and mentorships to full-scale productions, we want to empower the next generation of artists and audience members.

To achieve these goals, we invite your support and collaboration. We believe that by working together with local organizations, schools, and community leaders, we can create a rich tapestry of programming that reflects the diverse voices of our community. Whether through partnerships, sponsorships, or volunteer opportunities, your involvement can make a significant impact.

I am eager to hear your thoughts and explore how we can collaborate to enhance our offerings. Please feel free to reach out to me directly at aubrey@apollocivictheatre.org

I look forward to the possibility of working together to cultivate a thriving artistic environment in our community.

Thank you for visiting us. Together, let's make our beautiful Apollo be a beacon of creativity, inspiration, inclusivity, and joy for all.

I hope our paths cross again soon,
Aubrey M. Ervin

Music Director

Jessica Bewley found her love for musical theater through participating in ten Apollo Youth Theatre productions as a kid. She most recently performed as Ruth in Pirates of Penzance at the Black Box Arts Center in Shepherdstown. Jessica has taught voice lessons for three years, and she currently teaches at Adagio Academy of the Performing Arts. She is very excited to return to the Apollo Youth Theatre program and serve as Music Director!

Director's Note

Anastasia is a story about identity, courage, and the search for belonging. Set against the backdrop of a changing world and beautiful music, it follows a young woman's journey to discover who she truly is, which allows her to reclaim her voice and her future. This show is fitting for the climate of the world we currently live in. It is a story of hope and perseverance, reminding us that no matter where life takes us, home isn't a place. Home is often something we create through love, memories, and the connections we make. Working with these talented young performers has been a joy. Thank you to my students for all your hard work and dedication. It has been a privilege at rehearsals to watch the students grow and work together to bring this story to life. I invite you to join us on this magical journey from the streets of Russia to the glittering streets of Paris while celebrating the resilience of the human spirit. Thank you to all the amazing parents for your unwavering time, support, and dedication to your children and this program. It does not go unnoticed. Thank you to my amazing production team for being amazing and always bringing my ideas to life. I wouldn't be able to do it without each one of you. Thank you, audience, for supporting our performers.

Tiffany Leighton

Tiffany Noll Leighton

(Director/Choreographer) caught the theatre bug at the young age of 3 days old, thanks to her parents. She was last seen on the Apollo stage in The Wedding Singer. Favorite roles include Frenchy in Grease, Rosie in Bye Bye Birdie, and Tzeitel in Fiddler on the Roof.

She has been involved with the afterschool youth program since the beginning in 2013, first as the stage manager and then took over as director and choreographer in August of 2015. When not in the theatre, she is employed at the Martinsburg VA Medical Center as a nurse in the Urology Clinic. She is a mother to two boys, Aidan and Kason, and is excited to have them both in the shows. Thanks to Megan, Aubrey, Jessica, Kay, Jae, and Nathan for everything. Lastly, thanks to her amazing boyfriend, Chad, and her family for supporting her in all her theatre endeavors.
